

Teams - Emergency Calling

In This Section

- Emergency Calling - Overview and Planning
- Emergency Calling - 01 - Trusted IP Addresses
- Emergency Calling - 02 - Emergency Addresses
- Emergency Calling - 03 - Emergency Policies
- Emergency Calling - 04 - Network Sites

Overview

Microsoft Teams Emergency Calling provides the capability to configure and route emergency calls dynamically based on the current location of the Teams client. Furthermore, onsite personnel can be notified when an emergency call is made by a Teams user.

The articles in this section covers the information and planning requirements for organizations to configure Teams Emergency Calling. Additionally, the articles cover information for organizations in the United States to comply with Kari's Law and RAY BAUM'S Act.

Microsoft Resources

- Emergency Calling - Overview
- Emergency Calling - Considerations for Direct Routing
- Emergency Calling - Plan/Configure Dynamic Emergency Calling
- Emergency Calling - Remote Location Discovery
- Emergency Calling - Emergency Addresses
- Emergency Calling - Emergency Calling Policies
- Emergency Calling - Emergency Call Routing Policies
- Emergency Calling - Network Sites